NOMINATION

Benoit Chauvin, Deputy General Manager, Business Development, for the Colas Group, world leader in the construction and maintenance of transport infrastructure, has been elected President of European International Contractors (EIC)*, a European federation that promotes the international interests of European contractors.

* European International Contractors represents the international interests of European contractors towards international policy makers and financing institutions. Its members are construction industry federations from 15 European countries as well as affiliated internationally active contractors.

About Colas:

Colas, a subsidiary of the Bouygues Group, has one mission: to imagine, build and maintain sustainable transport infrastructure. Backed by a network of 800 construction business units and 3,000 material production units in more than 50 countries on five continents, the Group's 57,000 employees act locally to connect communities and foster exchanges for today and tomorrow. Colas' ambition is to be the world leader in innovative, sustainable mobility solutions.

In 2019, consolidated revenue at Colas totaled €13.7 billion.
