The net value of the contributed assets amounted to €246,430,431.28. Since the company owned the entire share capital of the merged company on the conditions specified in Article 236-11 of the Commercial Code, no capital increase was carried out as consideration for the contribution.

ARTICLE 7: SHARE CAPITAL

The share capital shall be €378,957,797, divided into 378,957,797 fully paid-up shares with a par value of €1 each.

The share capital may be redeemed, repurchased, increased or reduced on the conditions and subject to the limits stipulated by law.

ARTICLE 8: FORM OF SHARES – SHARE OWNERSHIP

8.1 Form – Registration

Fully paid-up shares may be in registered or bearer form, at the owner's discretion.

Shares shall be registered in an account on the conditions stipulated by law.

8.2 Disclosure thresholds – Reporting requirements – Sanctions

Any natural or legal person, acting alone or in concert, that obtains ownership or control, directly or indirectly, of at least one per cent (1%) of the company's share capital or voting rights shall inform the company that it has reached or crossed that threshold. Such disclosure shall be made within four trading days following the day the threshold was crossed, and shall state the date on which the disclosure threshold was reached or crossed and the number of shares, of voting rights and of any securities giving future access to the company's share capital that the natural or legal person holds or controls.

Disclosure thresholds shall be deemed to have been crossed when a trade is made on or off exchange, regardless of when or whether the securities have been delivered.

Such disclosure shall be made by registered letter with acknowledgement of receipt to the company at its registered office.

Such disclosure must be made each time a shareholder, acting alone or in concert, passes above or below that one per cent (1%) threshold or any threshold that is a multiple of one per cent (1%).

In the event of failure to comply with these obligations, which are in addition to the statutory obligations, the undisclosed shares shall be stripped of voting rights, at the request of one or more shareholders holding five per cent (5%) of the company's voting rights on the conditions specified in the first two paragraphs of Article L. 233-14 of the Commercial Code, in respect of all general meetings of shareholders until two years after the date on which such disclosure is properly made.

Intermediaries registered as holders of securities in accordance with Article L. 228-1, paragraph 7 of the Commercial Code are required, without prejudice to the obligations of the owners of the securities, to make the disclosures set forth in the present Article in respect of all the shares for which they are registered.

In implementing the disclosure requirements stipulated by the articles of association as contained in the present Article, the equivalences and calculation methods specified by Articles L. 233-7 and L. 233-9 of the Commercial Code or the AMF General Regulation shall be applied.

ARTICLE 9: TRANSFER OF SHARES

Share transfers shall be effected by inter-account transfer on the conditions stipulated by law.

ARTICLE 10: RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS ATTACHED TO SHARES

Each share shall give entitlement to a share in the corporate assets and in the distribution of profits proportionate to the interest in the capital that it represents.

Shareholders shall bear losses only up to the amount of their contributions or the value of their shares.

The rights and obligations attached to each share, including rights to dividends or to a share of reserves, shall vest in and be incumbent on the owner upon registration in an account in his name or for his benefit.

Share ownership shall entail acceptance of these articles of association and of all decisions taken at general meetings of shareholders.

ARTICLE 11: INDIVISIBILITY OF SHARES

Each share shall be indivisible as far as the company is concerned. Joint owners must arrange to be represented by one of them or by a sole representative, on the conditions stipulated by law.

Voting rights attached to shares shall belong to the usufructuary at ordinary general meetings of shareholders and to the bare owner at extraordinary general meetings of shareholders.

ARTICLE 12: VOTING RIGHTS ATTACHED TO SHARES

Unless otherwise stipulated by law, and except in the case of double voting rights as stipulated below, each shareholder shall have as many voting rights and may cast as many votes in general meetings of shareholders as he has paid-up shares.

However, double voting rights shall be granted on the conditions stipulated by law to all fully paid-up shares which can be shown, no later than the second day before the date of the general meeting of shareholders, to have been registered for at least two years in the name of the same shareholder or in the name of a person in whom such rights are vested through testate or intestate succession, partition of marital community or donation inter vivos by the donor to his or her spouse or to a relative in the line of succession.

If the share capital is increased by incorporation of reserves, earnings or share premium, double voting rights shall be granted upon issue to registered shares allotted free of charge in respect of existing shares that already carry double voting rights.

A merger of the company shall not affect double voting rights, which may be exercised within the absorbing company if its articles of association so provide.

PART III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS – EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

ARTICLE 13: MEMBERSHIP OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

13.1 The company shall be managed by a Board of Directors that shall comprise, in addition to those directors specified in Article 13.3, between three and eighteen members subject to the exception stipulated by law in the event of a merger, who shall be appointed by the general meeting of shareholders. The Board of Directors shall also have up to two members representing employee shareholders, elected by the general meeting on the recommendation of the Supervisory Boards of the employee share ownership funds set up as part of the employee savings schemes run by the Bouygues group and primarily invested in the company's shares.

The Supervisory Boards of the employee share ownership funds shall elect by simple majority, from each such fund, two candidates from the employee members of a Supervisory Board of one of the employee share ownership funds. The only candidates allowed to be put forward for election by the general meeting shall be the two persons representing the highest total capitalisation in terms of company shares, based on the number of such shares held by each employee share ownership fund that nominated them.

13.2 The term of office of directors other than those specified in Article 13.3 shall be three years. However the Board of Directors may, by way of exception and to smooth the renewal of terms of office, propose that the general meeting appoint one or more directors for a term of two or four years. Terms of office shall be renewable. A director's term of office shall expire at the end of the annual ordinary general meeting held in the year during which his three-year term expires. However, the term of office of a director elected from among the employee members of the Supervisory Board of one of the employee share ownership funds shall automatically end early in the event of the termination of the director's employment contract (except in the case of an intra-Group transfer) or if the company that employs the director leaves the Bouygues group. The Board of Directors shall then take all necessary steps to arrange for the replacement of the director whose term of office has ended.

13.3 In accordance with Article L. 225-27-1 of the Commercial Code, the Board of Directors shall also include either one or two directors representing employees.

Those directors shall be nominated by the Group Council governed by Articles L. 2331-1 et seq. of the Labour Code, in accordance with the following rule:

- where the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the general meeting, excluding directors representing employee shareholders, is eight or less, the Group Council shall appoint one director representing employees;
- where the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the general meeting, excluding directors representing employee shareholders, is more than eight, the Group Council shall appoint two directors representing employees.

The term of office of directors representing employees shall commence on the date of their nomination; it shall expire two years from that date and may be renewed once.

If the number of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the general meeting, excluding directors representing employee shareholders, falls to eight or less, the terms of office of the two directors representing employees shall continue until they expire.

The term of office of a director representing employees shall automatically end early in the event of the termination of the director's employment contract (except in the case of an intra-Group transfer) or if the company that employs the director leaves the Bouygues group.

13.4 Directors may be removed from office at any time by an ordinary general meeting.

As an exception to the above and pursuant to Article L. 225-32 of the Commercial Code, directors representing employees may be removed from office only on the grounds of misconduct in office, following an interim decision by the president of the Judicial Court in response to fast-track procedures on the merits of the case filed at the request of a majority of the members of the Board of Directors.

13.5 Each director, with the exception of directors representing employees, must own at least ten shares in the company.

13.6 Legal persons serving as directors shall appoint a standing representative on the conditions stipulated by law.

13.7 The Board of Directors shall elect as Chairman one of its members, who must be a natural person; otherwise the appointment shall be invalid. The Board of Directors shall determine the Chairman's remuneration.

The Chairman shall organise and direct the work of the Board of Directors, for which he shall be accountable to the general meeting of shareholders. He shall ensure that the company's management bodies function properly and in particular ensure that the directors are able to fulfil their duties.

The Chairman shall be appointed for a term not exceeding his term of office as a director. The Chairman may be re-elected. The Board of Directors may remove the Chairman from office at any time. If the Chairman is temporarily unable to act or dies, the Board of Directors may appoint a director to perform the duties of Chairman.

The age limit for serving as Chairman, where that office is not combined with that of Chief Executive Officer, shall be 85.

If the Chairman also serves as Chief Executive Officer, the age limit shall be that applicable to the Chief Executive Officer.

ARTICLE 14: DELIBERATIONS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

14.1 Calling of meetings, quorum and majority rules

The Board of Directors shall be quorate when at least half of its members are in attendance. Decisions shall be taken by a majority of the directors present or represented.

In the event of a tie, the Chairman of the meeting shall have the casting vote.

14.2 Written consultation

Decisions of the Board of Directors may be taken by written consultation of the directors, which may be effected electronically.

The consultation sent to directors shall contain a proposal for a decision, along with any necessary supporting information. The proposal shall give each director the option of responding “for”, “against” or “abstain”, and to submit their observations.

The consultation shall also indicate the deadline for responses from directors, which may not exceed five working days; a shorter deadline of any length may be set by the Chairman if required by the context or nature of the decision.

Any director may object to the use of written consultation for making the decision in question, within the deadline indicated in the consultation. In the event of an objection, the other directors shall be informed without delay, and the Chairman may call a meeting of the Board of Directors. A decision may only be adopted if no director has exercised his or her right to object. The other quorum and majority rules shall be those that apply to decisions taken in a meeting.

If no response is received by the deadline, the director in question shall be deemed not to have taken part in the decision. The responses received shall be collated, and the Board of Directors informed of the outcome of the votes. Decisions taken by written consultation shall be recorded in minutes, established on the same basis as for decisions adopted in a meeting.

14.3 Voting by correspondence

Directors may, if the convening notice so specifies, vote by correspondence using a form containing the relevant information required by law.

14.4 Minutes

Minutes shall be drawn up and copies or extracts of deliberations shall be issued and certified as required by law.

Those minutes shall be retained on the same basis as other decisions taken by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 15: POWERS OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

The Board of Directors shall lay down guidelines for the company’s business and ensure that they are implemented in the corporate interest, taking into consideration the social and environmental impacts of the company’s business.

The Board of Directors may also award directors exceptional remuneration in the cases and on the conditions stipulated by law.

ARTICLE 17: EXECUTIVE MANAGEMENT

The Board of Directors shall determine the remuneration of the Chief Executive Officer.

The age limit for the Chief Executive Officer shall be 70 years.

The Chief Executive Officer shall represent the company in its dealings with third parties. The company shall be bound by the acts of the Chief Executive Officer even if they are not within the scope of the corporate purpose, unless it can prove that the third party either knew that such act exceeded the corporate purpose or could not have been unaware thereof in the circumstances, it being specified that mere publication of the articles of association shall be insufficient to constitute such proof.

The age limit for Deputy Chief Executive Officers shall be 70 years.

If a Deputy Chief Executive Officer reaches the age of 65, his term of office shall be submitted for confirmation to the next subsequent Board meeting for a maximum of one year. The Board of Directors may then renew the term of office annually for one-year periods until the Deputy Chief Executive Officer reaches the age of 70, at which time the Deputy Chief Executive Officer shall be considered to have automatically resigned.

An ordinary general meeting of shareholders may appoint one or more non-voting directors for a three-year term.

A non-voting director's term of office shall expire automatically at the first general meeting of shareholders held after the non-voting director reaches the age of 70.

Should one or more non-voting directorships fall vacant as a result of death or resignation, the Board of Directors may make temporary appointments. Such appointments shall be subject to ratification at the next subsequent general meeting.
